WASHINGTON GLOBAL ENERGY ROUNDTABLE

May 4-5, 2011

House of Sweden Conference Center
2900 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C.

- Theme: “Energy Policy, Geopolitics, and Risk: Managing Fuel & Technology Selection in Times of Uncertainty”
- Purpose: High level dialogue on energy policy, directions for fuel and technology selection, the need for objective, positive communications and messaging, and an understanding of the transition to natural gas and other power generation and transportation fuels.
- Benefits:
- High-level, industry-to-industry interaction and quality dialogue
  - Opportunity to build and renew working relationships
  - A private, invitation-only debate without the constraints of the press
- Process: As with all Montreux Roundtables, participation is limited and all sessions are "off the record" to facilitate an open dialogue.
- Delegates: ▪ Invited participants and speakers from industry, government, NGOs, investors
- Registration: $1,400 Delegate Rate | $1,200 Speaker rate | $500 NGO rate
- Website Registration: <http://www.montreuxenergy.com/events.php>

Please join us to share your visions. We look forward to having you with us!

Sincerely,

Andrew Bermingham, CEO
